

Office of Inclusion and Engagement Student Advisory Board Member

Jamie Baum L'22

Jamie Baum is a 2L raised in Brooklyn, NY. She started at Penn Law following two years of working in Human Resources in the legal industry. Jamie was an NCAA championship fencer at Yeshiva University, where she graduated with a B.A. in Business Psychology and A.A. in Judaic Studies. At Penn Law, Jamie serves as co-President of the Jewish Law Students Association, co-President of Penn Law Israel Society, a Morris Fellow, a Legal Humanities Fellow, Associate Editor of both the Journal of International Law and the Journal of Asian Law, and is a member of Penn Law Women's Association, Penn Law Federalist Society, Penn Law and the Arts, and Penn Law Bowling League. Jamie spent her 1L summer at the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and as a Bankruptcy Law Research Assistant for Professor Mooney.