

FUNDAMENTALS OF U.S. LEGAL RESEARCH

LAWM 536

Summer: June 3-July 20 | Online Asynchronous

Fall: Online Asynchronous

SUMMER 2021

Genevieve Tung, J.D.

Associate Director for Educational Programs, Biddle Law Library

FALL 2021

Edwin Greenlee, J.D. Ph.D.

Research Librarian and Attorney

Class Description:

This asynchronous online class teaches students about key documents of the American legal system and how to find them using a variety of commercial and government sources. The class will also discuss how to find and navigate secondary sources, such as law review literature and legal treatises, that assist in understanding and interpreting statutes, court opinions, and administrative regulations. The class will also include discussion of increasingly-popular legal information sources including dockets and transactional research tools.