

AMERICAN CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

LAWM 505

Thursdays | 5:30 - 8:15 PM

FALL 2021

Michael Gerhardt

*Burton Craige Distinguished
Professor of Jurisprudence,
University of North Carolina at
Chapel Hill & Scholar-in-Residence
& Director of Content, National Constitution Center*

Register Here:

Class Description:

An introduction to American Constitutional Law, this course will cover fundamental constitutional doctrine and contemporary, controversial disputes in the field. The subjects to be covered are the origins of the American Constitution, the foundations and scope of judicial review, basic civil liberties, and the foundational issues of separation of powers, executive and legislative power, and state sovereignty.