

Jessie Ilkson is a Foreign Affairs Specialist in the Stability and Humanitarian Affairs Office in the Office of the Secretary of Defense. She is responsible for policy development and oversight on human rights vetting, conventional weapons, and civilian harm amends. Previously, Jessie served with the Department of State as the Detainee Affairs Coordinator at the U.S. Embassy in Kabul, Afghanistan overseeing the transition of detention operations to the Afghan Government and the repatriation of third country national detainees. Prior to Kabul, Jessie served at the Defense Technology Security Administration, overseeing the disclosure of classified military information for intelligence sharing agreements and administering the National Disclosure Policy Committee. She also served in the office of the Undersecretary of the Air Force for International Affairs focusing on foreign disclosure for foreign military sales cases, particularly weapons sales to Iraq and the NATO C-17 program. She graduated from The George Washington University in 2006 with a B.A. in International Affairs.