barbri®

Welcome!

We are thrilled that you are joining us tonight for the annual EJJ Auction. The Equal Justice Foundation, an entirely student-run organization, funds Penn Law students who are pursuing public interest work and serving communities whose legal needs may otherwise go unmet. The EJJ Auction has become a long-standing tradition at Penn Law. Each year, students, faculty, staff, alumni, businesses, and other EJJ friends come together and lend their support to this event. Their generosity is truly inspiring.

This night would not be possible without the help of the Penn Law community. Many thanks are owed to the faculty and students who have given us such fantastic and creative donations, and to the administrators and staff who have gone out of their way to make this event a success. We would like to extend our gratitude to Julie Colleluori, whose assistance keeps the Auction running year after year.

We are also grateful to our alumni who continue to be some of our biggest supporters. Special thanks are in order for Rick D'Avino L'80 and his tireless efforts, time and again, on behalf of EJJ. Mr. D'Avino has made it his business to encourage Penn Law alumni to get involved, and is responsible for securing many of our wonderful donations. He will also be showcasing one of his many talents as our Auctioneer. Thank you, Mr. D'Avino!

We would like to acknowledge the Summer Jackson-Healy Fund, established to support public service in the memory of Summer Jackson-Healy (Class of 2008). While at Penn Law, Ms. Jackson-Healy was an active member of EJJ and the Penn Law community at large. We are honored to carry on this noble work in her memory.

Finally, a big thank you to all of our guests for being here to share the evening with us. We encourage you to bid generously, as all proceeds go toward a great cause. Now go forth and enjoy the Auction!

Sincerely,

Julie Girard, Gizele Rubeiz, Brenna Stewart, and Alicia Zhang
Chairs of the 2015 EJJ Auction

Thank You

The 2015 EJP Auction is the culmination of a true team effort, and would not have been possible without the help of many. We are sincerely grateful.

Auction Guidelines

Silent Auction

6:00 to 7:45 PM in the Goat & Great Hall

Live Auction

8:00 PM in Fitts Auditorium

Check-Out

After 8:30 PM in Davis Student Union

Silent Auction

- Each item has a bid sheet with a starting bid and minimum bid increment. The starting bid is the lowest price that will be accepted for an item.
- To bid, please print legibly: your name, bidder number, and the amount of your bid.
- Check on your favorite items periodically to ensure that you remain the top bidder.
- Do not obstruct access to bid sheets. Any attempt to prevent others from bidding will disqualify you from participating in the Auction.
- Bidding ends at 7:45 PM, at which time we will remove all bid sheets from the tables.
- We reserve the right to withdraw any item without notice prior to payment, and in the event of a dispute, will act as the final authority in determining the winning bid.

Live Auction

- The Live Auction is left in the capable hands of our Auctioneer, Rick D'Avino. Please proceed to Fitts Auditorium at the end of the Silent Auction. This catalog, with your bidder number indicated on the back cover, will serve as your auction bid paddle.

Check-Out

- Check-out opens at 8:30 PM, in Davis Student Union outside of Fitts Auditorium, and continues until all winning bidders are checked out after the Live Auction.
- We accept cash, checks (made payable to EJF), and credit cards (Visa or MasterCard). Because we are charged a 3.5% fee for credit card payments, we highly encourage cash and check transactions, or a nominal donation on top of the winning bid price.
- All sales are final, and payment is mandatory on the night of the Auction.

709 Four Books from Professor Skeel

Everyone's favorite Bankruptcy professor is visiting Harvard Law for the semester, but that doesn't mean you can't enjoy his company in the form of his four fascinating books. Find out how corporate executives can turn into "Icarus in the Boardroom," or how "Debt's Dominion" came to be in the United States. This package also includes "The New Financial Deal," and Professor Skeel's latest book, "True Paradox: How Christianity Makes Sense of Our Complex World."

Donated by: Professor David Skeel, Value: $105.00

710 Immigration Law Consultation by Professor Chang-Muy

This consultation will let you benefit from Professor Chang-Muy's impressive experience in the fields of immigration and refugee law. A small sampling of his accomplishments includes: founding the federally-funded Liberty Center for Survivors of Torture, serving as Legal Officer with two UN agencies (Office of the UN High Commissioner for Refugee, and World Health Organization), serving as the human rights officer for the UN's Global Program on AIDS, and directing collaboratives to strengthen immigrant-serving (Emma Lazarus Collaborative) and Latino-serving (Hispanics in Philanthropy Collaborative) non-profits.

Donated by: Professor Fernando Chang-Muy, Value: $125.00

711 Interview Intervention Kit

Breeze through OCI (or at least make it a bit less stressful) with this Interview Intervention Kit! It has everything you need to ace your interview, including (1) a gift card toward a fresh hair cut or blow out from Adolf Biecker salon, (2) a $100 Banana Republic gift card for the perfect accessories to make you look like the aspiring professional you are, (3) a freshly cleaned suit delivered to the winning bidder (you drop off your suit to the CP&P suite, we cover the dry-cleaning bill and you pick up a freshly pressed suit from CP&P three days later), (4) assorted "day of" emergency essentials to store in your purse or briefcase, such as breath mints, travel deodorant, energy-sustaining granola bars, hand sanitizer for the many hands you will shake along the way, blister Band-Aids to keep you on your feet all day, bobby pins to tame that annoying fly-away, travel Visine to clear those tired eyes and much more, (5) a travel case to stow in your bag for emergency essentials, and (6) simple but elegant thank you notes to write for your (hopefully) future colleagues. With this basket at your disposal, you will walk into your interview with the confidence you need to land your dream job!
