

Rudolph C. (Rudy) Barnes, Jr.

Rudolph C. (Rudy) Barnes, Jr. is a practicing attorney in Little Mountain, SC. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from The Citadel, and Master of Public Administration and Juris Doctor degrees from the University of South Carolina. He is a past president of the Senior Lawyers Division of the S.C. Bar and served on the Board of Governors of the S.C. Bar 2013-2015. He is a retired United Methodist pastor and a retired colonel in the Army JAGC, having served on active duty as group judge advocate and civil affairs officer in Special Action Force Asia, and in the Army Reserves as Command Judge Advocate (IMA) of the USAJFK Special Warfare Center and School at Ft. Bragg, NC and as the first Staff Judge Advocate of USACAPOC and as Staff Judge Advocate (IMA) of CENTCOM. He is a graduate of the Army War College, a recipient of the Legion of Merit and a member of the 1st Special Forces Regiment.

Published Works:

Military Legitimacy: Might and Right in the New Millennium, Frank Cass, London, 1996 (posted at www.militarylegitimacyreview.com)

Articles: Operational Law, Special Operations and Reserve Support, The Army Lawyer, December 1984; Grenada Revisited: Civil Affairs Operations in Paradise, The Officer, July 1985; Special Operations and the Law, Military Review, January, 1986; The Politics of Low Intensity Conflict, Military Review, February, 1988; Civil Affairs, A LIC Priority, Military Review, September 1988; Legitimacy and the Lawyer in Low-Intensity Conflict: Civil Affairs Legal Support, The Army Lawyer, October, 1988; Civic Action, Humanitarian and Civic Assistance, and Disaster Relief: Military Priorities in Low-Intensity Conflict, Special Warfare, Fall, 1989; The Diplomat Warrior, Military Review, May, 1990; Civil Affairs: Diplomat Warriors in Contemporary Conflict, Special Warfare, Winter, 1991; Military Legitimacy and the Diplomat Warrior, Small Wars and Insurgencies, Volume 4, Number 1, Spring/Summer 1993; Military Legitimacy in OOTW: Civilians as Mission Priorities, Special Warfare, Fall, 1999; Human Rights and Legitimacy in the Foreign Training Mission, Special Warfare, Spring, 2001; The Rule of Law and Civil Affairs in the Battle for Legitimacy, 2009 Military Legitimacy and Leadership Journal, posted at www.militarylegitimacyreview.com; Jesus and Muhammad: Allies in the Battle for Legitimacy, 2010 Military Legitimacy and Leadership Journal, posted at www.militarylegitimacyreview.com; other short articles or blogs posted from January 2011, at www.militarylegitimacyreview.com. Back to the Future: Human Rights and Legitimacy in the Training and Advisory Mission, Special Warfare, January-March 2013, p 42; Religion, the Rule of Law and Military Legitimacy, topic presented at the Conference on Sovereignty and New Executive Authority held at the University of Pennsylvania Law School on April 19, 20 2013, article in the 2013 Military Legitimacy Review posted at www.militarylegitimacyreview.com.

Military Education:

The Infantry Airborne School; Basic and Advanced Courses, The Judge Advocate General's School; Special Forces Officers Course; Civil Affairs Officers Course; Psychological Operations Officers Course; Command and General Staff College; National Security Management Course (NDU); US Army War College (recipient of USAWC Foundation Writing Award)

Military Decorations and Badges:

Legion of Merit, Meritorious Service Medal, Army Commendation Medal, Army Achievement Medal with Oak Leaf Cluster, Army Reserve Component Achievement Medal, National Defense Service Medal, Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal (Korea), Overseas Service Ribbon, Army Reserve Component Overseas Training Ribbon, Parachute Badge, Special Forces Tab, Philippine Parachute Badge