Welcome!

We are thrilled that you are joining us tonight for the annual EJJ Auction. The Equal Justice Foundation, an entirely student-run organization, funds Penn Law students who are pursuing public interest work and serving communities whose legal needs may otherwise go unmet. The EJJ Auction has become a long-standing tradition at Penn Law. Each year, students, faculty, staff, alumni, businesses, and other EJJ friends come together and lend their support to this event. Their generosity is truly inspiring.

This night would not be possible without the help of the Penn Law community. Many thanks are owed to the faculty and students who have given us such fantastic and creative donations, and to the administrators and staff who have gone out of their way to make this event a success. We would like to extend our gratitude to Dimitri Islam, whose assistance keeps the Auction running year after year.

We are also grateful to our alumni who continue to be some of our biggest supporters. Special thanks are in order for Rick D'Avino L'80 and his tireless efforts, time and again, on behalf of EJJ. Mr. D'Avino has made it his business to encourage Penn Law alumni to get involved, and is responsible for securing many of our wonderful donations. He will also be showcasing one of his many talents as our Auctioneer. Thank you, Mr. D'Avino!

We would like to acknowledge the Summer Jackson-Healy Fund, established to support public service in the memory of Summer Jackson-Healy (Class of 2008). While at Penn Law, Ms. Jackson-Healy was an active member of EJJ and the Penn Law community at large. We are honored to carry on this noble work in her memory.

Finally, a big thank you to all of our guests for being here to share the evening with us. We encourage you to bid generously, as all proceeds go to a great cause. Now go forth and enjoy the Auction!

Sincerely,

Maura Hallisey, Ellyn Jameson, Haley Pritchard, Makenzie Way, and Caitlyn Wigler

Thank you!

Equal Justice Foundation

The Equal Justice Foundation, a student-run organization at the University of Pennsylvania Law School, encourages law students to pursue their aspirations of serving low-income, under-represented clients by providing financial support to students taking public interest jobs during the summer and upon graduation.

Justice isn't free. Throughout our city, and our country, low-income people have serious legal needs that go unmet because they cannot afford lawyers. Every law school has students who would like to provide legal services to low-income people, but paid positions are scarce.

EJF awards summer grants to students working in unpaid positions at non-profit and government organizations. Student members raise the grant funds with the support of the Law School, the Philadelphia business community, the Penn Law alumni network, and corporate sponsors. With this support, Penn Law students have the opportunity to provide vital services to people in need.
